FOREWORD

As the close of another school year approaches, the CLASS of 1967 experiences a period of reminiscing. For this fourth graduating class it is their last closing; all the club meetings, pep rallies, assemblies, elections, late passes, themes, and debates are part of the past. Their life at Martin Luther High School cannot be relived, but the knowledge accumulated will reach out into other areas. No matter what field of study is entered, the CLASS will take part of Martin Luther High School with them.

The Seniors hope that they will not only take the academic achievements, but also the Christian fellowship they have experienced and enjoyed during their stay. Although conflicts will constantly meet us on our way, we have begun to learn the assurance of Christ's presence. It is our hope that our confidence in Him will grow so that we will be more readily guided by His Will.

Dearly and In

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

HEADMASTER

REVEREND FREDERICK C. HINZ B.D., M.A.

Dear Members of the Class of 1967:

Our God maintains the world which He created and in which we live through a structure of authority. He depends on a chain of command to preserve order, to build His Kingdom and to enlarge our joy.

Authority doesn't always sound like a good word to us. Authority can be abused. It often suggests arbitrariness, vindictiveness, aloofness, wantonness and the like. Yet authority has a very real place in God's economy in order to give wholeness to us and our world.

We shall benefit from being under authority only to the extent that we regard it in its proper perspective. St. Paul provides us with this salutary approach to the exercise of authority: "Not that we have dominion over your faith but are helpers of your joy." II Corinthians 1:24.

I am sure that there have been times during your years at Martin Luther High School that you were unhappy because of the authority exercised over you. But I hope, as you look back over the years, you will feel that the issue of your training here was that we were really helpers of your joy.

I can tell you now that there will be various ways to test this along life's journey as Jesus Christ develops wholeness in you. Your respect for the authority of God's Word, your esteem to your employer, how you yourself someday will use authority, the obedience which during your lifetime you will render to Jesus Christ—all will tell in a measure whether we only succeeded in having "dominion over your faith" or whether, by God's good gifts, we were also "helpers of your joy."

"Cast down ... every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bring into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." II Corinthians 10:5.

God go with you! Christus Victor!

Sincerely yours, Frederick C. Hinz Headmaster

DEAN OF ADMINISTRATION

HERBERT G. GEISLER B.S., M.A.,

Professional Diploma

To the class of 1967—

By the time you read these words you will have scattered to the four winds and most of you have tasted "independence". You have found that "being on your own" is not without its problems—home-sickness, responsibilities, decisions to be made, temptations to face—alone. This is all a part of adulthood. The way you handle it is going to depend a lot upon the way you learned to accept real responsibilities during the last four, eight, yes, even seventeen plus years. Your attitude concerning the real values in life will become more and more evident.

Do you remember some of our discussions in Guidance? We said that, as Christians, we all have one primary responsibility or vocation. That vocation is the calling given to us at our baptism—to be "little Christs". This vocation enjoins us to be about our Father's business. His business is to bring all men to Him. Our business is to be His arms, legs, eyes, ears, and mouth so that through us He can comfort and protect, travel to all parts of the earth, look upon those in distress, hear the cries of the penitent, and preach the message of salvation to all mankind.

My dear young friends, while preparing for your secondary vocation, do not forget your real purpose in life. You will make mistakes and you will have disappointments, however, you know with St. Paul that all things work together for good to those who love God; to those who know what their primary vocation is. You will not make the mistakes caused by faithlessness and your disappointments will be turned to joy by His abiding presence. The loneliness and home-sickness brought about by independence is eased by the comforting assurance that He lives and remains with you at all times.

The temptations which you face are met with the same assurance our Lord had when he was tempted—Get thee hence, Satan—Thou shalt not tempt the Lord your God. Oh! yes, you will be tempted, but not beyond what you can stand if you look to God's Law as an absolute guide and not subject to man's whim or interpretation. If you know what God wants of you, and you love Him, He will give you the strength you need to withstand any temptation.

May God fill you with His Holy Spirit so that the life He has given to you through His work of creation, and redeemed through the precious blood of your dear Savior, and your baptism in His Name, be dedicated to His glory and blessed with the peace which passes all human understanding.

Your friend in Christ,
HERBERT G. GEISLER

LEADERS

The Cheerleaders promoted school spirit at pep rallies, assemblies, and basketball games. The girls worked hard to learn many interesting and lively cheers. Our basketball team, the COUGARS, knew that the school was behind them by the loud cheers of the Cheerleaders and the Boosters. Sherry Euell and Chris Molnar were co-captains. Mrs. Simonsen was the faculty advisor for the Cheerleaders.

Boosters were proud to wear their sweaters with the Cougar-head emblem.

BOOSTERS

Boosters promote attendance at basketball games, and cheer the cheers that the Cheerleaders lead. Pep assemblies were livelier this year because of the enthusiasm of the Boosters. The Boosters helped to plan the HOMECOMING celebration and were responsible for the decorations.

GIRLS BOWLING

The Girls Bowling this year consisted of afternoons filled with spares, strikes, food, conversation, giggles, and lots of fun. Taking care of the bowling lists, being sure to put the right average with the right bowler, and arranging the lists on the bulletin board the next day were done by June Reichert and Christine Merrill, the two student assistants. The faculty advisor was Pastor Johnson.

BOYS BOWLING

Maspeth Bowl was the home of the Martin Luther High School Bowling Leagues again. For four months the boys bowled each Monday afternoon. The competition was keen and the games were exciting.

Gary Strubel had the highest average for the season —176. Not too far behind Gary was Bill Bloom with a season average of 170. Richard Simcox was the third highest bowler in average—157.

Pastor Johnson was the advisor to the Boys League. He bowled on one of the teams.

Gary Strubel rolled an amazing three game series of 601 during the past season.

I can't believe it! The ball jumped into the gutter.

WRESTLING TEAM

Most of the boys on the WRESTLING TEAM had never even seen a wrestling match before this year. Therefore, inexperience was the key factor in the team's failure to win any wrestling matches. The fellows did show improvement as the season progressed.

Next season should be a good one for the wrestlers as all but one of the wrestling team will be back.

The 1966-1967 BASKETBALL SEASON for the Cougars of Martin Luther High School was filled with many exciting, hard-fought contests. Possibly without the loss of Gunther Pontes' services, the Cougars could have had a winning season. The Cougars ended the season on a high note by taking the Garden School Tournament championship. In the Lutheran Tournament the Cougars came in third place. The Cougars won eleven games and lost fourteen games.

Jim Lindsey's rebounding and shooting really helped the team, and he will be missed next season. Mike Zachary, Jim Lindsey, and Gunther Pontes were selected for the ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM in the Garden School Tournament.

VARSITY TRACK

The speedy sprinters scored successes in their first year as Martin Luther High School's trackmen. The competition was keen and the boys showed that they had talent. All of the fellows will be back for next season which should be a very successful one. The TRACK TEAM hopes to win the Lutheran Tournament next year. The trackmen of Luther came in third this past season in the Lutheran Tournament.

Track Team Coach John Gahl presents Moses Jackson with a letter at the Lettermen's Banquet.

COUGARS OF THE DIAMOND

The Cougars were unbeaten until the last game of the season when Our Saviour's baseball team defeated the Cougars in the last inning. The season record showed nine victories and one loss with one tie game.

It was a very good year for the baseball team coached by Mr. Meyer.

The high point of the season was winning the Lutheran Tournament held at Concordia, Bronxville. The Cougars shut out Long Island Lutheran 3-0 and then edged Concordia 1-0.

THE SPORTS SCENE

The girls turned the gym into "Yankee Stadium".

Pat caused Laurie to become depressed.

Dick Van Arsdale even kept Paul Rohr's attention.

Dick Van Arsdale signed many autographs.

Ellen had a ball.

Mike Zachary was very proud of being voted to the All Lutheran Tournament first team.

ACTIVITIES

INVICTUS '66

The 1966 edition of the Invictus was distributed at the Invictus Dance, held on September 30. Some of the 1966 graduates attended the dance and saw their old friends. Everyone had an enjoyable evening signing yearbooks, dancing to live bands, and eating refreshments served by the Senate.

A part of the fun was signing each others' yearbook.

The Huns and the Kiwis supplied the lively music for the evening.

FIRESHMAN WEE 4-28

FRESHMEN ARE

The beloved FRESHMEN of Martin Luther High School were graciously greeted by the gregarious upperclassmen. The neophyte students at M.L.H.S. were given the privileges of washing faculty cars, cleaning sidewalks with tooth-brushes, picking up leaves by hand, cleaning the cafeteria, shining shoes, and having their faces adorned with make-up.

Some FRESHMEN were so delighted that they paraded around the school grounds chanting, "WE LOVE UPPER-CLASSMEN".

LITTLE PEOPLE

FRESHMAN WEEK OCTOBER 24 to 28, 1966

Upperclassmen and faculty members enjoyed watching the beanie-adorned FRESHMEN toss eggs to each other. A few cherubic FRESHMEN found out that the eggs they were tossing were not hard-boiled.

The STUDENT SENATE supervised the splendid festivities. Senators served cream pies to their favorite FRESHMEN.

FRESHMEN FRUG

Boy did the Frosh let off steam at the end of Freshmen Week! A dance was held for the Freshmen on October 28, 1966. The best dancers were awarded records. Other prizes, such as pickles & candy were given to Freshmen for diverse reasons. The Frosh also played pingpong and volleyball at the dance. The Senators supplied and served refreshments to the Frosh.

Van Smith was a Supreme dancer.

Kathy Schoenemann was voted as the best girl dancer.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Everybody danced to the music of the Huns at the New Year's Dance on January 14, 1967. Prizes were given out to the best dancers and other "talented" people. Besides the usual prizes of records, such prizes as bananas, super-trolls, and pickles, were awarded to the guests. Refreshments were supplied by the Senate.

The New Year's Dance was the last social event before the rigors of Mid-Terms.

Louise Messer really showed them how!

Some couples danced slowly, too!

LUTHER HAS MANY CLUBS

The annual CLUBS ASSEMBLY was held on October 28, 1966 in the school gymnasium.

Members of the student SENATE introduced the various clubs and organizations which participated in the assembly. Joe Scaturro, senator, and Wesley Doody, president, had to use their talents to ad lib in order to fill in the time between presentations.

It was an enjoyable experience for all present. Rachel Hintz will always remember the microphone that fell over.

"I think we've made a mistake."

"Give me a C!"

Everyone seems interested except Karen and Arlene.

HOMECOMING

"IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR" FEBRUARY 3, 1967

The first HOMECOMING at Martin Luther High School occurred on February 3, 1967. The theme for Homecoming was "IT WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR".

The Drama Club and Boosters presented a skit entitled "South Side Story" at an assembly during the week of Homecoming. Decorations for the gymnasium were done by the Booster Club. Some artists under Mrs. Lindemann's direction "created" a papier-mache COUGAR HEAD. The coaches and the Lettermen helped with the arrangements for the game and the dance which followed. The Senate conducted the nominations and election of the Homecoming Queen and her attendants.

Elaine Fabian was crowned HOMECOMING QUEEN by Senate President Wes Doody. Linda Butler and Celeste Eng were chosen as attendants for the Homecoming Queen. Mike Zachary, Steve Roth, and Gunther Pontes were escorts for the QUEEN and the attendants.

The only sour note of the evening was the loss of the game to a powerful Our Saviour High School basket-ball team. The Our Saviour players were much more friendly at the dance after the game was over.

Some alumni attended the evening's festivities, and it was hoped that more alumni could attend next year's HOMECOMING.

It was a very good year!

Barbara Cichocki admired the laser.

Martin Luther High School was the scene of the 1967 Music-Art-Science Fair held on April 15, 1967. Over 2000 persons attended the Fair to listen to the choir concert, to view the art displayed, and to examine the science projects. All of the Lutheran elementary schools in Queens participated with Martin Luther High School in the MAS Fair. It was a great day for Christian fellowship and industry. The students have many talents that they can be thankful to God.

Louise Messer and Terry Hall conducted a genetics experiment with PTC taster papers. Was Mrs. Geisler a taster or non-taster?

Lee Winter and Christine Meier bred and raised mice. They observed the different genotypes and phenotypes of the mice.

Bob Fischer built an ant colony and earthworm colony. Many people were fascinated by the ants.

One of the many art displays presenting the creations of Martin Luther High School's artists. Mrs. Lindemann was the chairwoman of the ART COMMITTEE of the MAS Fair.

Al Kohler and Bill Wolters told many about fruit flies and their genetic variations.

Mr. August Simonsen was chairman of the SCIENCE COMMITTEE of the Fair. Mrs. Borchert, Mr. Cliff Doll, Mr. Ben Herbrich, and Mr. Richard Steinbrueck assisted Mr. Simonsen in having the science students prepare projects for the Fair.

Paul Bollow constructed a teaching aid that demonstrated reduction division in gamete formation.

Mr. Richard Steinbrueck conducted the Martin Luther High School Choir for a number of selections during the choral concert.

Was Jean Singing?

The Huns admired other art presentations.

Cathy McCrea and Kathy Castles explained to many viewers the details of glacial trough development as represented by the models they constructed.

Donald Cron had that distant look when working with his project.

Henry Mohrmann and Paul Wiediger had some flooding problems with their project.

Betty Creteur seemed satisfied with her project.

Lois Bollow, Ingrid Armbruster, and Sasha Dinell were all present the moment of the creation of a "unique cleansing agent".

Alec Selenow was a well-dressed chemist.

Dr. Stone and Dr. Kraus attempted to change the "environment" of a wee mousey.

Vassi Manesis and Karen Kimpel might work for U.S. Rubber someday.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT SENATE

Student activities sponsored by the Senate of 1966-1967 were Invictus Dance, Freshman Week, Freshmen Party, Bethlehem Children's Home Food Collection, dances, Talent Show, Christmas card collection and distribution, Christmas worship service, elections for Homecoming Queen, voting for a new team name, and the campaign and election of new SENATORS and OFFICERS for 1967-1968. The Senate also cooperated with other clubs in sponsoring different activities during the year.

The offerings collected in the student Chapel services were sent to various organizations selected by the Senate. The Senate sent the chapel offerings from October and November to a mission church in Brownsville, Brooklyn. December, January, and February's chapel offerings were sent to the American School in Hong Kong. The rest of the offerings collected were sent to the Ebenezer Thankoffering.

June Reichert planned some of the Faculty section pages in Invictus '67.

Valerie Derle submitted to Mr. Simonsen, Invictus advisor, a rough draft layout of a two-page spread she designed.

The seniors and other students who worked on the Invictus '67 staff worked diligently throughout the year to produce a yearbook that truly represented the 1966-1967 school year. The staff of any yearbook usually goes unsung. They work hard all year long and get little, if any, recognition for a job well done.

To complete one page in the yearbook takes hours of effort. Some one has to report on the event being covered. A photographer has to take the pictures, have them developed and printed, and select the best prints to be used in the book. The body copy is written and submitted for approval to the editor Barbara Cichocki. A rough draft layout is made for the page and submitted for approval to Barbara and Mr. Simonsen. The layout is then transferred to the copy sheet triplicate form with headings and body copy included. Before being sent to Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas, the copy sheet is proofread by the editor, the advisor, and the yearbook representative.

Editor Barbara Cichocki advised financial editor Roger Boulter of the number of pages he had for advertisements.

Most of the photographs in Invictus '67 were taken by Carol Studios, and Mr. Simonsen. Bill Wolters and Herb Geisler were part-time photographers for Invictus.

Bette Danch and Cathy Alkire struggled to find good pictures to use.

Chris Merrill became quite adept at using the scaleograph instrument which helped to crop and enlarge photographs.

THE MASQUE & BAUBLE PLAYERS PRESENTATION

THE GLASS MENAGERIE

The Masque and Bauble Players produced The Glass Menagerie on May 12 and 13, 1967. Sharon Reynolds played Amanda Wingfield and Paul Buscemi—Tom. Jacqueline Boulter portrayed Laura while Alexander Dinell enacted Jim O'Connor.

The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams explores the tragic breakdown of the American family, and thus, symbolically, the whole society. The father can no longer enjoy being an autocrat since woman's suffrage, civil rights and perhaps now the deromanticizing of war has suggested to him that manhood and dominance are not identical. He must seek out a new image of himself. Preoccupied with his sense of inadequacy, he is unable to offer any constructive aid to the family. Tom's father having long since deserted the family, Tom Wingfield and Jim O'Connor have taken up this search for the feeling of being a real man and are unable to be responsible to those with whom they become involved. The mother must then take over the role of father in addition to her own. This is Amanda Wingfield. She is bitter and harshly forces her children to fulfill in their lives what she would like in hers-not for their sake but her own substitutional satisfaction. She fails!

Her son Tom is only repelled by her male-like dominance, and her daughter Laura is driven to fear all social relationships. Thus, the woman also cannot be responsible to others either. Sadly all this would not have to be; no evil fate has decreed it. Man himself refuses to change. He prefers power to love, selfishness and war to family.

The 1966-1967 school year has been an exceptional one for the History Club. Its varied activities included debates on Rhodesia and Imperialism in Africa, discussions about the 1966 elections, and the showing of a movie about the U.S.S.R.—"Nightmare In Red". The highlight of the year was the History Club trip to Boston during Easter vacation. Here they saw such historic sights as the old North Church and Bunker Hill. The History Club is working to foster a greater loyalty to the United States by acquainting its members with her rich heritage.

The National Honor Society consists of those students, both Seniors and Juniors, who have achieved scholastically and who have shown strength in character, leadership, and service. After six years, Martin Luther has received its charter and has formed the society under the direction of Mr. Walsh. On June 2, the society sponsored an academic contest between the four classes. Cheered on by their fellow classmates, the Sophomores were victorious and an exciting time was had by all.

Triumphant Sophs are: Elizabeth Benjamin, Mike Caulfield, Ellen Lucy, Bob Atwood.

LIBRARY AIDES

The Library Aides, under the direction of Mr. Frankle, helped in arranging the books and aiding those students unfamiliar with the library.

CHOIR

The Choir, under the direction of Mr. Steinbreuck, provided the school with vocal music for the entire year singing at assemblies and in chapel. They held many concerts including the Christmas; Music, Art, and Science Fair; and Spring Concerts. In the spring of this year they went on a tour of the following elementary schools in Queens: St. John's, Glendale; Grace, Queens Village; Trinity L.I.C.; and St. John's, College Pt. They were received with great enthusiasm by all.

ALTAR GUILD

Those members of the Altar Care Committee, which include Lois Anne Bollow, Sara Rothmann, Nancy Stoll, Wendy Herrel, Doris Carr, Deborah Lindsey, Valerie de Sena, Dianne Buettel, Ruth Anderson, Liz Duy, Marsha Jones, Joan Mirabella, Donna Mehling, Diane Salomon, and Marcia Bynoe, made sure the chancel was cleaned and changed at the appropriate times.

The Publicity Committee, under the direction of Pastor Rogahn, prepared and posted worship helps. Members include Jean Siewert, Barbara Cichocki, Diane Popall, Sara Rothmann, Doris Carr, Cheryl Whitley, Renee Speaks, Diane Salomon, and Marcia Bynoe.

ACOLYTES

Under the direction of Pastor Rogahn, the Acolytes assisted in the worship services in a various number of ways. We thank them for their help in lighting the candles, posting the hymns, and collecting our mid-week offerings.

Members of the Acolytes include Sasha Dinell, Charles Lehmann, Douglas Halfmann, Carl Browne, George Scheurich, Henry Albrechtsen, Charles Bond, John Hurtnole, John Bor, and Chris Lindner.

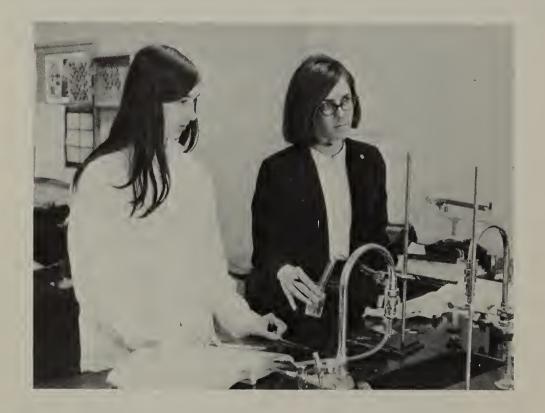

Mrs. Borchert, the club's advisor, watches.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The purpose of the Chemistry Club is to increase the knowledge of science, to perfect skills in chemistry, to participate in the Science Fairs, and to help carry out further endeavors of chemical science.

MATH CLUB

With the help of Mr. Fibelstad, the Math Club sought to organize the math tutors and to stimulate and motivate the mathematical imagination of the students. Their major activity of the year was the Computer Dance.

President of the Math Club Arlene Mehl tells the members about the plans for the Computer Dance.

What's Charley planning to do with that money?

FUTURE NURSES

The purpose of the Future Nurses Club, under the direction of Miss Lakner, is to create an interest in nursing between the girls and to acquaint them with the meaning of nursing and its services.

Members include (back row) Celeste Eng (treasurer and secretary), Stephanie Denale, Wendy Horbert, Andrea Savadge (president), Marina Lotocki, (front row) Alice Klemann, Janis Kienle, Maria Lundquist.

CAMERA CLUB

Advised by Mr. Dolak, the Camera Club learned the mechanics of the camera and its fundamentals of lighting in order to obtain better photographs. Members were required to do a picture project and then conduct an analysis of their work.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

During this school year the Lettermen's Club was established. Mr. Clifford Doll, faculty advisor, indicated that the Lettermen's Club was begun to foster greater school spirit.

The LETTERMEN were permitted to wear their sweaters instead of their school uniforms to school on days when there were athletic contests.

The Lettermen sponsored an ALUMNI DANCE after the Alumni Game. Many of the details

Vice-president Steve Roth, President Gunther Pontes, and Secretary-Treasurer Niel Nielsen confer with Coach Doll about Lettermen activities.

A delicious roast beef dinner was served at the LETTERMEN'S AWARDS BANQUET held at Redeemer School, Glendale, on June 2, 1967. The coaches awarded the letters to the athletes who earned them during the school year. Pastor Rogahn was the jovial toastmaster for the evening. The guest speaker of the evening was Dick Van Arsdale, a member of the New York Knickerbockers professional basketball team. After his talk, the boys besieged Dick Van Arsdale for autographs.

Dick Van Arsdale had a few special words for Wayne Hendell.

ART CLUB

The Art Club worked eagerly all year to complete their chapel projects. Among these projects are papier-mache figure of Christ, new chapel curtains, and papier-mache candlestick holders. The purpose in making these items is to improve the worship service when held in the gym.

SWINGIN' AT THE SUTTON

The evening of June 9, 1967 was a delightful one for the seniors. The NEW YORK HILTON was the location for the SENIOR PROM of the Class of 1967. The Sutton Room South was appropriately decorated for the evening of dinner and dancing.

Blobaum, Mr. Steinberg, Mr. and Mrs. Simonsen, Mr. Walsh, Mr. Dolak, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank. The chaperones greeted the seniors and their guests at a reception line.

The chaperones for the 1967 PROM were: Pastor Hinz, Miss

"Mrs. Simonsen, you got your hair CUT!"

Dessert?

Herbie finally arrived at the prom.

Lionel is back!

The dance music for the evening was played by Tony Cole and his orchestra.

Roast Vermont Turkey was the main course of the dinner served at the prom. Dinner was served late in the evening to provide, as some said, a Continental flavor.

The girls were all dressed in floor-length evening gowns. Most of the fellows wore white dinner jackets and black slacks.

The dance floor was well-used.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

On the twenty-third of June, 1967, the Baccalaureate Service of the fourth graduating class of Martin Luther High School was held at Grace Lutheran Church in Queens Village, New York.

Mr. Alan Steinberg served as the academic marshal. The Class of 1967 met in the undercroft of the church to assemble for the processional.

The processional hymn of invocation was "The Church's One Foundation". The Reverend Frederick Hinz was the officiant during the order of vespers.

The organist was Mr. Nathan Eickmann and Mr. Richard Steinbrueck directed the choir which was composed of members of the Martin Luther High School Choir and the Grace Lutheran Youth Choir.

The members of the faculty were bedecked in robes and academic hoods.

The graduates' faces reflected feelings of satisfaction and excitement.

The Reverend Kenneth Rogahn was the lector. The lessons were read from Deuteronomy 6:1-8 and First John 3:18-24.

The Reverend Clarence Roth, Pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Queens Village, New York was the preacher. After the sermon the choir sang the anthem, "O Jesus, Grant Me Hope and Comfort".

The hymn of consecration was "Arm These Thy Soldiers, Mighty Lord". The graduates know that with God's grace and guidance they can lead successful lives.

The postlude, "Now Thank We All Our God", was a fitting close to the Baccalaureate Service for the Class of 1967 as they were thankful to God for the blessings they have received in their high school years.

GRADUATION DAY

JUNE 25, 1967

The academic procession entered the gymnasium to the "Trumpet Voluntary in D Major" by Purcell-Buszin.

The invocation was given by the President of the Lutheran High School Association, The Reverend Richard C. Hintz.

Susan Modr delivered the SALUTATORY ADDRESS.

The COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS was presented by the Reverend Robert J. Riedel, Pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Bristol, Connecticut. Pastor Riedel was closely associated with Martin Luther High School in its early years.

The Martin Luther High School Choir under the direction of Mr. Richard Steinbrueck sang J. S. Bach's "Lord, Keep Us Steadfast In Thy Word".

The VALEDICTORY ADDRESS was given by Linda Marsala

The Dean of Administration, Mr. Herbert G. Geisler, presented the Class of 1967 to the Headmaster, the Reverend Frederick C. Hinz. The long-awaited diplomas were given to the graduates by Pastor Hinz. Andrea Savadge indicates by her smile the happiness that the graduates felt when they received their diplomas.

It was a happy June!

After the diplomas were given to the Class of 1967, the many academic honors were awarded.

Renny Anderson, Ingrid Armbruster, Herbert Geisler, Linda Marsala, Christine Merrill, Susan Modr, June Reichert and Linda Rydberg received gold HONOR CORDS for their excellence in academic pursuits.

The more than a thousand people in attendance at the graduation exercises rose to sing "America". Carol Schneider received the PRO DEO ET SCHOLA award and delivered the PRO DEO ET SCHOLA address.

Pastor Hinz led us in prayer. The choir sang the benediction, "The Lord Bless You And Keep You" by Peter C. Lutkin.

The graduates eagerly posed for their class picture after they had recessed.

SENIOR CANDIDS

TO THOSE TEACHERS LEAVING MARTIN LUTHER HIGH SCHOOL

On behalf of the student body of Martin Luther High School, the INVICTUS STAFF would like to bid a fond farewell to those teachers who are departing from the faculty of Martin Luther High School. You, along with the remaining faculty members, have made us examine our values, have created an awareness in the world around us, have increased our knowledge, and have made our days at Martin Luther High School more meaningful. Your faithfulness in teaching, patience, and friendliness will never be forgotten.

It is the wish and prayer of the STUDENT BODY that you find success and happiness in whatever you pursue.

May God, our source of peace, be with you all. Amen.
